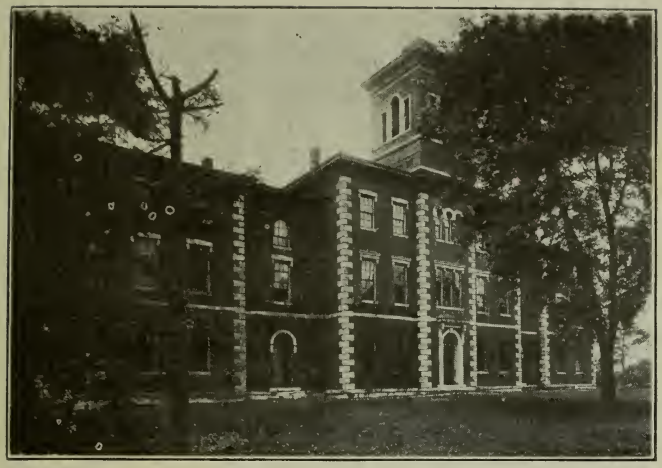
S41

OSKALOOSA COLLEGE

OSKALOOSA, IOWA

LIBRARY
OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

MID-YEAR ANNOUNCEMENT
1909-1910



OSKALOOSA COLLEGE

President:

Edwin D. Kizer, Ph. D., J. D.

Dean:

John A. Spyker, Ph. D., D. D.

Board of Trustees:

Edwin D. Kizer, John A. Spyker, Hon. S. V. Reynolds, D. K. Unsicker, Manoah Hedge, H. L. White, Frank E. Baker, H. S. Rosecrans, S. A. Hendryx.

We Ask You to Read

this statement with your eyes open. We especially ask you to compare our tuition rates, courses, and general plan of work, with those of other institutions and

Note Our Superiority

in important particulars. It may be well to state that

We Do Not Make Brains,

but we do develop the material offered, with rapidity and gratifying success. We would say more, but modesty forbids.

Do Not Make the Mistake of attending elsewhere when the best can be obtained at Oskaloosa College.

Students Can Enter at Any Time.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

Distinct, Complete

EDWIN D. KIZER, Cert. Acct., President, and Instructor in Certified Accountancy.
CHARLES A. SIEGFRIED, B. Accts., Principal.
PEARLE W. SNIDER, Instructor.
PROFESSOR HESKETT, Faculty Assistant

Our Aim

is to use the best, most up-to-date systems; to give thorough instruction, by competent, experienced teachers; and to graduate all students as expert stenographers and bookkeepers, so that they will be in demand.

Can I Get a Position?

Yes! When you graduate from Oskaloosa College! Our graduates fill high salaried positions. Doors of opportunity open to our graduates. We have more calls than we can fill. Business men of Omaha, Des Moines, Ottumwa, Albia, and other cities, besides local firms, give us first call for bookkeepers and stenographers.

The Best Systems

are used, including the pre-eminent Bliss System of Actual Business from the Start, Touch Typewriting, Gregg and Benn Pitman Shorthand (your own choice), and Bank Systems as used in city banks.

Ask Our Students,

they will indorse and recommend our Commercial Department as the best.

Courses of Study.

Business: Bookkeeping, Theory and Advanced; Retail, Wholesale, Manufacturing, Commission, etc.; Commercial Arithmetic; Commercial Law; Grammar and Correspondence; Rapid Calculation; Banking; Office Methods.

Shorthand; Shorthand (Gregg or Benn Pitman); Touch Typewriting; Spelling; Advanced Dictation; Correspondence and Grammar; Penmanship; Billing; Filing; Indexing and Copying.

Combined: Includes all in Business and Shorthand Courses.

Tuition

for either Business or Shorthand Course separate is $40; for Combined Course, $60. Either pays for scholarship to graduation. For term of three months (any studies desired) $17.50. Our system is the fairest, for you pay for what you get, and are not compelled to rush unduely, or waste time. Average expense for books, $15. Students are graduated when they complete their courses. Some students require longer to do what others master in less time.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT

EDWIN D. KIZER, Ph. D., J. D., President
F. P. HESKETT, B. Ped., A. M., Dean.
IDA M. HESKETT, Instructor in English and Drawing.
Faculty Assisting: President KIZER and Dean SPYKER.

Preparation For Teaching

acquired in Oskaloosa College has two salient characteristics: thorough knowledge of subjects, and ability to impart knowledge obtained. These objects are attained possible, with the result that a student is able to acquire from fifty to a hundred per cent. more knowledge in Oskaloosa College in a given period of time than in many other institutions.

In Shortest Time

When We Say

to a student: "you are ready for your examinations," they never fail! Why then go elsewhere, when we have what you want?

The Summer Session

is an admirable method whereby teachers and others can either increase grade of certificate or prepare for examinations, and also obtain credit in course, thus shortening time usually required to graduate.

The Degree of Bachelor of Pedagogy is conferred upon graduates of Normal course upon payment of diploma fee of five dollars.

Course of Study

Preparatory: Arithmetic; Geography; English Grammar; Reading; Orthography; Penmanship; Physiology; U. S. History; Vocal Music; Map Drawing; Composition; Debating.

First Year: Penmanship; Physical Geography; English; General History; Algebra; Civil Government; Didactics; Physical Culture; Latin.

Second Year: English; Physics; Algebra; Economics; Zoology; Geometry; History; Latin;

Third Year: English; Geometry; Physiology; Botany; History of Education; Latin (or German).

Fourth Year: Trigonometry; Practice Teaching; English; Chemistry; Methods; Geology; Latin (or German).

THE COLLEGE

EDWIN D. KIZER, Ph. D., J. D., President. Professor of Philosophy.

JOHN A. SPYKER, Ph. D., D. D., Dean. Professor of Literature and Languages.

CHAS. J. BURTON, Ph. B., D. D., Professor of Astronomy.

F. P. HESKETT, B. Ped., A. M., Professor of Sciences.

CHARLES A. SIEGFRIED, B. Accts., Instructor in German.

EUGENE ALLEN, Ph. B., D. D., Lecturer in Literature.

J. B. ADKINS, A. M., B. D., Lecturer in Christian Ethics.

ALEXANDER McFERRAN, A. B., Lecturer in Social Science.

JOSEPH W. DOE, Physical Director.

The Aim

of the College is to provide a liberal education that compares favorably with the standards of high grade institutions A witness to the accomplishment of this aim is the acceptance of our credits and graduates by other institutions of standing.

Admission to the College is granted graduates of Accredited High Schools of Iowa, or to those possessing equivalent credits.

Courses of Study.

CLASSICAL COURSE LEADING TO DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

Freshman Year: Greek; Latin; Mathematics; English.

Sophomore Year: Greek; Latin; Logic; English.

Junior Year: Greek; Latin; Philosophy; two Electives.

Senior Year: Greek; Latin; three Electives; Thesis.

PHILOSOPHICAL COURSE LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF PHILOSOPHY.

Freshman Year: Two Languages; History; Mathematics.

Sophomore Year: Two Languages; Bible; Psychology.

Junior Year: Philosophy; three Electives.

Senior Year: Philosophy; Sociology; three Electives; Thesis.

LITERARY COURSE LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LITERATURE.

Freshman Year: Same as Philosophical Course.

Sophomore Year: Same as Philosophical Course.

Junior Year: Literature, History, three Electives.

Senior Year: Literature, Education, or Bible, three Electives, Thesis.

Electives: Psychology, Commerce, Theology (Historical or Systematic), Greek, Latin, German, French, Bible, Chemistry (Elementary), History, Ethics, Logic, Physics (Elemetary), Education, Bible, Geology, Zoology, Ethics, Political Science.

SCHOOL OF THE BIBLE

EDWIN D. KIZER, Ph. D., J. D., President. Professor of the Bible.

JOHN A. SPYKER. Ph. D., D. D., Dean. Professor of Biblical Theology.

The Bible

is the foundation of all the instruction in this department. Careful attention is given in preparing the student for the Ministry of Today,

with a grasp upon the fundamentals in Biblical Theology.

Courses

offered lead to the degrees of Bachelor of Divinity and of Sacred Literature. A Bachelor's degree is required to receive the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, but the English Bible Course is provided for those with less academic training, or for those who prefer a shorter course.

Courses of Study.

DIVINITY COURSE, (B. D.)

First Year: Hebrew, Greek, Theological Encyclopedia, Hermeneutics, Church History, Systematic Theology, Philosophy, Christian Doctrine.

Second Year: Hebrew, Greek, Biblical and Pastoral Theology, Church History, Christian Evidences, Comparative Religion, Homiletics, Thesis.

ENGLISH BIBLE COURSE. (LIT. B. S.)

English, General History, Bible, Short Course in Theology, Bible History, Christian Doctrine, Theological Encyclopedia, Homiletics or Sunday School Pedagogy.

Special Courses are arranged upon request for students preparing for Y. M C. A. positions, or for other forms of Christian service.

SUMMER SESSION

The Advantage

of attending the Summer Session is the added amount of work gained during the vacation period. Work is individual and considerable ground can be covered. All studies are credited to proper department.

Decide Now to Attend

next Summer. Work will be offered in the following departments: Commercial, Normal, College, Bible, Music.

A Strong Staff of Instructors

is engaged for the entire summer session. The session

Opens June 27th, 1910

and continues for ten weeks.

ACADEMY

Preparation

for college or for daily life with a proper perspective is obtained in the Academy. The course is outlined so that it fulfills usual requirements for entrance credits to Colleges and Universities.

Course of Study.

First Year: English; Algebra; Greek and Roman History; Latin.
Second Year: English; Plane Geometry; Civil Government; Latin.
Third Year: English; Solid Geometry; Civics; Latin or German.
Fourth Year: English; Physics; Chemistry; Latin or German.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

HATTIE MAUDE SANDERS, Mus. B., Director. Professor of Pianoforte and Voice.
EDNA D. SANDERS, Professor of Pianoforte.

The School of Music

offers courses of study which include systematic and progressive instruction in Pianoforte, Voice, Harmony, Theory, History of Music, and Public School Music. These courses are such as will enable students to become accomplished musicians, and work is planned with a view to each individual need.

The Department of Voice

aims to train and develop the voice of the individual student so as to establish him firmly in the use of a proper voice technic and in an understanding of the art of singing.

For Further Information

address the Director, Miss Hattie Maude Sanders, Mus. B., Lock Box 478, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

EXPENSES

Commercial Department, see page 2.

Normal, College, Bible, Academy, $18 each Semester. (Two Semesters of 18 weeks each constitute school year.)

Summer Session, $6 all departments.

School of Music, see Director.

Average expense for room per week, 50 cents; board, $2.50. College aids students to get pleasant quarters.

A Final Word

This Mid-Year Announcement of our work has two aims: to give a brief resume of the courses of study, and to encourage determined young people who want an education at lowest expense to Attend Oskaloosa College.

Visit the institution, ask questions about anything that does not seem clear, and finally decide, like many others have done to their future satisfaction, that

Oskaloosa College is Best For ME!

3 0112 105897786